There are in operation in our to be on the heel of a good dioner. willinge at least six different patents, which it is lieved, the owners may be induced to enter, not so much for competition, as to add to the interest of the exhibition. These machines are the Wheelr & Wilson, Singer, House, Grover & Baker-two thread, high priced machines; the two first making the lock-stitch, and the last the chain stitch. The others are the Aurester. and the Watson muchines. These are single thread, chain-stitch, low-priced machines, Such a variety of patents grouped in one fair, will be something probably that has not been seen

THAT SCHOOL MEETING AGAIN .- Saturday evening witnessed the assembling of the second meeting for the purpose of bearing the report of the committee of inquiry and consultation in the matter of the purchase of the interest of the Academy Association, in and to the scademy building and grounds. The report was submitted by the chairman of the committee, H. C. the following communication in your valuable Touses, and in rubstance, approved the propoadoption of the resolution submitted by the Board of Education at the previous meeting .-This resolution asked for the purchase of the interest alluded to, for the sum of $1,625, payable in three years, without interest, and an appropriation of $2500 to effect this and the purchase of and Odd Fellows, who hold the upper story, and to cover some slight changes and repairs. On the movement for an acceptance of the reports, the ball was opened. The meeting was a full one, and the opponents of the measure proposed, in other words, the apparents of the union school system, mustered in considerable force. Their mode of attack embraced all the best settled and most recently contrived modes of warfare. The feint, the ambush, the hold dashing onslaught, circumventing, &c., &c. The time was taken up to a late hour in this manonvering of the opposition. R. W. Garsword led off. and was sustained by father MERRIMAN, a our "redoundable" and ready friend Ension, who as usual took a wide range, in which the village editor suffered some, the Board of Education and union school system more, and logical reasoning still more. Lawyer Boorn having been held in reserve as the heavier artilery for closing the field, and making a clean job, now came up with an amendment to limit the appropriation to appear next week. $1500, and the purchase of the academy interest to $500.
